

Privacy Policy

Barclays is committed to safeguarding the privacy of your information. By “your information” we mean any information about you, which you or third parties provide to us.

The Barclays Privacy Principles, set out below, explain how your information will be treated by Barclays.

Barclays Privacy Principles

- We will only collect & use your information where we have lawful grounds and legitimate business reasons to do so.
- We will be transparent in our dealings with you, and will tell you about how we will collect and use your information.
- If we have collected your information for a particular purpose we will not use it for anything else unless you have been informed and where relevant your permission obtained.
- We will not ask for more information than we need for the purposes for which we are collecting it.
- We will update our records when you inform us that your details have changed.
- We will continue to review and assess the quality of our information.
- We will implement and adhere to information retention policies relating to your information and will ensure that your information is securely disposed of at the end of the appropriate retention period.
- We will observe the rights granted to you under applicable privacy and data protection laws and will ensure that queries relating to privacy issues are promptly and transparently dealt with.
- We will train our staff on their privacy obligations.
- We will ensure we have appropriate physical and technological security measures to protect your information regardless of where it is held.
- We will ensure that when we outsource any processes, the supplier has appropriate security measures in place and will contractually require them to comply with these Privacy Principles.
- We will ensure that, when your information is transferred to other countries, suitable safeguards are in place.

You are not required to provide any personal information on this website. However, we may receive information about you from

Event organisers and charity partners. We will only use the information about you provided to us for the purposes described and in the manner set out in the applicable Wheels for Change terms and conditions and the Active Agreement and Liability Waiver and medical declaration included within the Online Entry Portal.

If you are a Barclays customer or already have a relationship with us you will have been advised by various methods as to how we collect and use your information.
